

50 HR Interview Questions

Question prompts with answer angles. Use your own stories. Please do not sound like a brochure.

Core questions

- Tell me about yourself. Angle: education, one strong skill, one project, target role.
- Why should we hire you? Angle: role fit plus proof from projects or internships.
- What are your strengths? Angle: one strength, one example, one result.
- What is your weakness? Angle: real but manageable, plus what you are doing about it.
- Why this company? Angle: product, role, learning, and how your skills connect.
- Where do you see yourself in 5 years? Angle: growing in the role, not sounding lost.
- Why do you want this role? Angle: specific tasks you enjoy and have practiced.
- Are you comfortable relocating? Angle: honest availability and conditions.
- What salary do you expect? Angle: market range, flexible for role and learning.
- Do you have any questions for us? Angle: ask about team, work, growth, expectations.

Story questions

- Describe a difficult problem you solved.
- Tell me about a time you failed.
- Tell me about a team project.
- How do you handle feedback?
- How do you manage deadlines?
- What did you learn from your final-year project?
- Tell me about a time you had to learn something quickly.
- How do you handle conflict in a team?
- What was your biggest learning in college?
- What achievement are you proud of?

Quick practice table

Q
W
I
6
P
P

G
H

C
O

More questions to practice

- What motivates you?
- How do you handle pressure?
- What do you know about our company?
- Why did you choose your branch?
- What are your short-term goals?
- What are your long-term goals?
- Are you applying elsewhere?
- What makes you different from other candidates?
- Tell me about your internship.
- Explain your resume gap.
- What did you do outside academics?
- What is your preferred work style?
- How do you prioritize tasks?
- What is your biggest mistake?
- What kind of manager helps you do your best?
- What have you done to improve yourself recently?
- How do you define success?
- What are your hobbies?
- Can you work in a team?
- Why should we not hire you?
- What if you are rejected?
- What are your expectations from this job?
- How soon can you join?
- Any final thing you want to add?
- Can you explain one project in detail?
- What did you learn from your last interview?
- How do you stay updated?
- What was your toughest subject?
- What is one skill you are building now?

- What question were you hoping I would ask?

Use this as a starting point. Customize answers and resumes for the exact role. If it sounds copied, it probably is.